The Maysville Bulletin says: "Mr. and Mrs. John W. Boulden enjoyed the pleasure of entertaining an old and valued friend yesterday—Rev. J. C. Newton, Missionary to Japan, who with his family formerly roomed with them at Millersburg, where he lectured Monday evening and was here between trains on his way to Virginia."

Mrs. Mattie Hawes and son, Master Albert Hawes, who have been spending the winter in Chicago, returned home Friday. It will be remembered that Mrs. Hawes went to Chicago last September as housekeeper for the Messrs. McHagan and her son, Mr. Alex Hawes. Mrs. McHagan, mother of the young men, at the time was in bad health. Since then she has grown better and they have sold their home.

Cynthiana badly defeated the M. M. I. base ball team on the local diamond Thursday afternoon by the score of 13 to 3, after the game had gone 13 innings. The game was a close one up to the last inning when the cadets blew up and allowed Cynthiana men to score ten runs. After Cynthiana had scored three runs in the last inning M. M. I. put in a new pitcher, Bishop, who could not find the plate, and his delivery was slaughtered. E. and F. Wigglesworth were the star performers for their team, the latter leading the M. M. I. batting list.

In a game of ball here Saturday afternoon M. M. I. was defeated by the local team by a score of 8 to 5. The Cadets lead until the seventh inning when a fielder's error allowed three men to cross the rubber tying the score and in the eighth three more tallies were counted. Only five men on the Millersburg team were from the town, the others being picked men from this and adjoining counties.

One of the handsome Royal Colonial Dames of the State, in her elegant touring car, accompanied by a distinguished lady relative, visited Col. and Mrs. John Cunningham and Mrs. Laura Estill Francis, at Rosedale, Cunningham Station, Escondido, Ky. While there she took a list of the handsome and elegant historic relics of the Cunninghams and of her much esteemed relative, the late Mrs. Elizabeth Rhodes Estill, deceased, of Fort Estill, daughter of the great landowner and financier Judge Robert Rhodes, deceased, of Madison. Some of these noted antique solid silver relics are over a hundred years old. They will be photographed and catalogued and exhibited by the Daughters of the American Revolution and Colonial Dames later at Louisville.
